Portland Preparative Meeting of Friends held 7 m. 27 d. 1859

1st. Our meetings for worship and discipline are regularly held but are not as punctually and well attended as they should be.

2nd. Some few Friends do not in their intercourse with men give evidence that they are enclosed with the love of Christ. Most Friends instruct their Children in the Christian religion and bring them up to habits of industry and simplicity and encourage them in the study of the Bible.

3rd. As far as we know most Friends are careful in contracting debts and other engagements. Some few Friends are not careful of the reputation of others.

4th When our members are overtaken in a fault timely measures have been taken to restore them. But we believe we should all be more careful to restore the wayward ones. Overseers

Clerk

Fallowfield Preparative Meeting of Friends held 7th month 23rd day 1891.

The clerk being absent E. C. Thornton is appointed for the evening.

The queries were read at this time with written answers to them, as follows, which are directed to the Monthly Meeting; also, the advices were read.

Answers.

(a) Our Meetings for Worship and Discipline are regularly held: they are not well attended: but favourably by a few.

(b) Some Friends, in their intercourse amongst men, give evidence that they are imbued with the love of Christ. Some instruction is given the children in the principles of the Christian religion, and, to bring them up to habits of industry and simplicity; and some encouragement to the reading and study of the Holy Scriptures.

(c) So far as appears, Friends are careful in regard to contracting debts and other engagements, so that no discredit or reproach has occurred for want of promptness in complying with the same: nor care of the reputation of others is needed.

7 (d) Some efforts are used to restore our delinquent membership in the spirit of meekness and love.

8 The Meeting then concluded.
